Our Vision is Their Vision

Give the gift of sight.
It's critical for quality of life.

When the elderly Survivors in Eastern Europe begin to lose their eyesight, in addition to their already challenging circumstances, they find it nearly impossible to survive. That's why one of our goals in this New Year is to expand our commitment to give the gift of sight to all of the Survivors who need this assistance.

The remarkable commitment of our generous supporters has already made an enormous impact
for many survivors

"Your help came just in time. My cataract operation, was a success! It only was only possible because of your help. I would be lost without you. I cried from happiness."
Moisejus P., a survivor of Dachau and Stutthof,
Lithuania

"Thanks to you I didn't go blind. I will pray for you all the rest of my life," Anna Israelevna, Ukraine

As the Survivors age into their 80s and 90s, their sight can rapidly diminish. These elderly men and women living in Belarus, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Moldova, Transnistria, Ukraine, and Russia, have no savings and no health insurance to cover the $2000 it takes to restore their vision. After struggling to pay for food, medicine, heat and shelter, there is nothing left. And so they lose what little they have – their sight.

Today the need is greater than ever.

Remember us as the Gates of Awe stand open.

"I am making mistakes while writing this letter because my eyesight is worse. I cannot even read what I write. You must forgive me". - Tzal Nusymovych, Ukraine

"I have cataracts in both eyes. I almost lost the vision in my right eye and it requires urgent surgery. I thank G-d for the aid you provide." - Raisa Davidovna, Moldova

Aleksandr Iosifovich, pictured below, was born in 1928. He has already lost one eye due to neglect and poverty. Today he is in need of expensive medications and treatments to save his other eye.

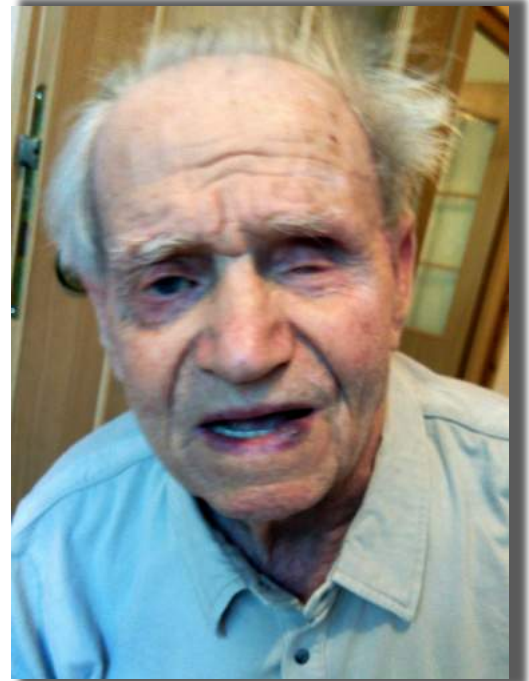

With your ongoing support, we will continue to provide compassionate help where it's needed the most.

Together we can help Aleksandr and many others, by giving them the gift of sight.

Together we create miracles for these forgotten individuals.

Together we bring hope to elderly Holocaust survivors like Fainia Ilyinichna (born in 1925) pictured receiving your life-saving aid in Moldova.
