Yom HaShoah Holocaust Remembrance Day

A Time to Remember

On Holocaust Remembrance Day we honor the six million innocent men, women, and children who perished during the Holocaust.

"From 1941 to 1943 I was detained in the ghetto. At first, I was with my mother. Then she, along with 17 others, were taken from the ghetto and murdered in Rybnitza. In 1968 in Rybnitza, while excavating the ground for the foundation of a proposed multistory building, 48 bodies were discovered, among them my mother.

We suffered and lived through so many horrors, but did not become heartless. I am happy that there are still people like you in this world. I always tell people that goodness will prevail. Your help is proof of that."

- Maria Vladimirovna (above)

"During wartime I lived with my parents until the Nazis took my mother away and shot her on the outskirts of the city, together with other Jews."

- Mikhail Vladimirovich (below)
