

The Survivor Mitzvah Project™

An Award to Share With All of You

The Survivor Mitzvah Project is pleased to announce Founder Zane Buzby has been honored with the Anti-Defamation League's Deborah Award.

Each year, the ADL honors outstanding women whose professional leadership, philanthropy, and civic contributions exemplify the ideals of the Anti-Defamation League.

The Deborah Award is named for the Biblical Deborah, who is noted for her courage, wisdom and leadership.

Zane Buzby's professional achievements in the Entertainment Industry and personal commitment to elevating the day-to-day lives of Holocaust survivors make her an ideal recipient of this honor. – ADL

"I owe a deep debt of gratitude to our kind and compassionate donors who make it possible for us to continue our work, ensuring that the last generation of Holocaust survivors do not suffer, but live their remaining years with comfort, care, dignity and hope.

- Zane Buzby

Since 1913, the Anti-Defamation League has been dedicated to combating anti-Semitism and all forms of bigotry, defending democratic ideals and protecting civil rights for all.

"Your donations, large and small, represent a victory for compassion, empathy and tolerance. I will accept the Deborah Award on behalf of all of you, who have responded to our mission with such enduring and vigorous support." - Zane Buzby

Pictured at left: Zane Buzby and Presenter Edward Asner

Pictured at right: Actress/Activist Frances Fisher, Founding Board Member Conan Berkeley, and Zane Buzby

Pictured at Left: Fran Simon, VP Managing Director of The Survivor Mitzvah Project and Zane Buzby

Pictured above: SMP Donor Bunok Kravits, Conan Berkeley, Zane Buzby, and SMP donor Roy Slavin.